CHINA WIRELESS PROVIDES SYSTEM INTEGRATION SERVICE FOR CHINA ENCYCLOPEDIA PUBLISHING HOUSE

Denver, CO, August 20, 2004, China Wireless Communications, Inc. (OTC Bulletin Board: CWLC) is pleased to announce that it has signed a system integration service contract with its existing customer, China Encyclopedia Publishing House (CEPH). China Wireless will reconstruct the existing CEPH network, providing them with a reliable network platform to enhance the existing high speed broadband transport service provided by China Wireless. China Wireless currently provides CEPH with a 10Megabit fiber access network connection.

Dr. Allan Rabinoff, Chairman of China Wireless commented, "Our value-added services continue to increase as we concentrate our efforts on executing our building access plan and providing enhancements to existing service offerings."

About China Wireless Communications, Inc.

China Wireless Communications, Inc., headquartered in Denver, CO provides a suite of broadband data services, including support for Internet access and Voice over IP in Beijing, China through its wholly owned subsidiary, In-Touch Communications. We use secure, reliable fixed wireless technology to provide the 'last mile' connection to link bandwidth-hungry businesses to our fiber-optic backbone, and to the networks of our telecommunications partners. Our "Wireless Fiber" services provide the capacity and reliability of fiber-optic networks, over a fixed wireless connection. As a result, we capitalize on faster deployment and maintain targeted capital spending available only through these advanced technologies. Our systems are used to provide redundant high-speed network access connections, Voice over IP and transport services that include IP data, video and ISP services. The Company is publicly traded on the OTCBB under the symbol "CWLC".
