China Wireless Enters Into Acquisition Discussions

DENVER, Jan. 27, 2005 // -- China Wireless Communications, Inc., (OTC Bulletin Board: CWLC - News), is pleased to announce that it has entered into discussions with a leading managed services company in Tianjin, China for the proposed acquisition of Tianjin Create Co. by China Wireless Communications Inc. Pedro E. Racelis III (Pete), President and CEO, noted "This opportunity not only significantly increases our capacity to expand and support our Wireless Fiber products across China but also will result in new complementary services being added to our product line. It provides us with the opportunity of serving new customers and markets." This latest move follows China Wireless's strategic business partnership with Jiaxin Group, Inc and demonstrates China Wireless's commitment to expand its business, extend customer value and create significant growth by virtue of acquisitions.

China Wireless will continue to update its shareholders and the financial community as to its progress moving forward with Tianjin Create Co.

About China Wireless Communications, Inc.

China Wireless Communications, Inc., headquartered in Denver, CO provides a suite of broadband data services, including support for Internet access and Voice over IP in Beijing, China through its wholly owned subsidiary, In-Touch Communications. We use secure, reliable fixed wireless technology to provide the 'last mile' connection to link bandwidth-hungry businesses to our fiber-optic backbone, and to the networks of our telecommunications partners. Our "Wireless Fiber" services provide the capacity and reliability of fiber-optic networks, over a fixed wireless connection. As a result, we capitalize on faster deployment and maintain targeted capital spending available only through these advanced technologies. Our systems are used to provide redundant high-speed network access connections, Voice over IP and transport services that include IP data, video and ISP services. The Company is publicly traded on the OTCBB under the symbol "CWLC".
